

LEGACY GRANT APPLICATION

Dear Applicant,

The Scandinavian Seminar is pleased to encourage and support your attendance at the Scandinavian Folk School of your choice.

While the Scandinavian Seminar is able to offer financial assistance in the amount of $5000 in support of your attendance, the Seminar is not staffed to make connections with any specific folk school, or to offer advice or help with research about a specific folk school, or advise applicants about how to contact and pursue an application to a folk school.

After you have chosen and been accepted to a particular folk school you must, in order to be supported financially by the Scandinavian Seminar, fill out the application for support below and mail it, along with proof of acceptance, to: Bruce Buxton, The Scandinavian Seminar, 24 Dickinson St, Amherst MA 01002.

Once we have accepted your application for financial support, we will notify you of the grant we are making on your behalf. When you confirm with us that you accept the grant and plan to attend, we will wire scholarship monies in support of your attendance directly to the folk school.
